

Green Eyes Glowing

1. In a for - est far in Shot - land, there's a litt - le crook - ed house, ab -
 2. The litt - le house is haun - ted, all the neigh - bours they do tell. A
 3. Brave Tom and Ma - ry sneaked tonight out of their co - sy home and
 4. The green eyes they were leap - ing straight to - wards the child - ren two. Tom

1. an - doned long, long time a - go, now the wind's it's on - ly spouse. The
 2. crook - ed wick - ed witch she dwelled and cast her wick - ed spell. She
 3. tip - toed to the dark old house as far as they could go. A
 4. shout - ed "Ma - ry, come with me, let's quick - ly run, let's go!" When.

1. win - dows are all bro - ken, and at night - time you can see green
 2. lived there oh, so long a - go but still haunts it with a fright. You can
 3. night owl hoot - ed "hoo" and shock! Two eyes there at the door! The
 4. Ma - ry laughed "O Tom, look out! Here is your wick - ed witch!" And a -

1. eyes glow - ing here and there a wander - ing round the trees.
 2. see her green eyes spark - ling hear her spoo - ky laugh at night.
 3. boy and girl in furi - ous fright held hands and feared for more.
 4. pur - ring round their legs the cat it said "me - ow!"