

Green Eyes Glowing

Hallowe'en Song

1.

In a forest far in Scotland
there's a little crooked house,
abandoned long, long time ago,
now the wind's it's only spouse.
The windows are all broken
and at night-time you can see green eyes glowing here and there a-wandering round the trees.

2.

The little house is haunted,
all the neighbours they do tell,
as a crooked wicked witch had dwelled
and cast her wicked spell.
She had lived there long, long time ago
but still haunts it with a fright.
You can see her green eyes sparkling,
hear her spooky laugh at night.

3.

Brave Tom and Mary sneaked tonight
out of their cosy home
and tip-toed to the dark old house
as far as they could roam.
A night owl hooted ooh - and shock!
Two eyes there at the door!
The boy and girl in furious fright
held their hands and feared for more.

4.

The green eyes they were leaping straight towards the children two Tom shouting: "Mary, come with me,
let's quickly run - let's go!"
When Mary laughed: "O Tom, look out!
Here is your wicked witch!"
A-purring round their legs,
a cat it said "Meow"
